TAFF BEST DOCUMENTARY FEATURE FILM 2016 (North American premiere)
Sick (Croatia) By Hrvoje Mabic

At the age of 16 Ana was locked up in a psychiatric hospital by her parents who arranged the treatment for curing her homosexuality with the hospital director. After enduring five years of heavy traumas at the hospital, Ana is now free but on the verge of suicide and with almost no trust in people around her. Everyone she ever loved have rejected and abandoned her. Still, she longs for a girl who would accept her and wouldn't think of her as insane because of her PTSD condition. She finds all that in Martina, her new love whom she plans the wedding with. However, Martina's huge patience and devotion wanes with time as she finds Ana obsessed with her past. Her only reason for living is revenge on everyone who caused her pain and suffering, and not the relationship and life they're sharing together. Will Ana manage to overcome the hell she went through and devote herself to the life with Martina? Or will she end up abandoned and alone again? 'Sick' is a film about love, betrayal, revenge and forgiveness

Duration: 01:34:24 - Croation spoken, English subtitled

Sea With No Name (Finland) by Emilia Linnakoski

Desert. Sand blowing in eyes, back bent down, limbs heavy of waiting. Wallpapers reflecting the light beams from cars outside on the streets. Hands reaching warmth under the blanket or resting on thermostat. When rejection and abandoning has beaten you repeatedly they sculpt themselves in human memory, all the way through your body. Landscape in Tuula's eyes is silent, days resemble one another, then suddenly a song blossoms in this desert, like a flower waking up at night. In that song she reveals herself to us. What kind of a prison has she built with only one feel - fear of abandoning?

Duration: 36:30 - Finnish spoken, English subtitled

TFW BEST ANIMATED SHORT FILM (Toronto premiere)

When The River Stops Whispering (France) by Lucas Malbrun

It depicts the life of an old man who lives isolated on an artificial island made of flesh-like material in the middle of a great river. The island is in constant metamorphosis because the river takes away but also constantly floats material to the island. The old man finds himself in some sort of loop: He repeats the same gestures mechanically always trying to maintain his refuge by protecting it and adding some material. But one day the river stops to advance, the water becomes static. As a result, the old man sees his reflection on the smooth surface of the immobile river. Due to his encounter with his reflection the old man falls into the water. Surrounded by this element the limits of his body become less and less defined to the point where he becomes completely solved into the water.
